

1825 First passenger steam train	1886 First cars were invented	1903 Aeroplanes were invented by the Wright Brothers.	1937 Ameila Earheart flies flew solo across the Atlantic Ocean.	1997 First hybrid (petrol engine & electric motor) cars sold.
--	---	---	---	---

Vocabulary Dozen

transport	A way of carrying goods or people from one place to another.
travel	Moving from one place to another.
vehicle	Something used for carrying people and goods around.
car	A road vehicle with an engine, four wheels and seats for a small number of people.
Train/locomotive	A railway engine connected to carriages for carrying people or to wheeled containers for carrying goods.
aeroplane	A vehicle designed for air travel that has wings and one or more engines.
aviation	The activity of flying aircraft or designing.
Victorian	A period of time when Queen Victoria was ruler.
inventor	someone who designs or creates something that did not exist before invention	to create something that has never been made before living memory	A time that can be remembered by people who are still alive.
beyond living memory	Something that happened a long time ago and cannot be remembered by people living today.

Prior Learning

- Recognising how toys evolved and changed over time.
- Using vocabulary such as beyond living memory and living memory.
- Chronology of my family history knowing that people born before me are older.
- Developing an understanding of changes over time and using time language to reflect this.
- Looking closely at similarities and differences over a period of time.

Amelia Earhart was an American aviation pioneer. Earhart was the first female aviator to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean.

Key Questions

- How did people travel in the past?
- How did transport help the lives of ordinary people?
- How and why have cars changed over time?
- Who was Amelia Earhart?

