Famous Pirates

Blackbeard (1680-1718)

Edward Teach or Thatch, better known as Blackbeard, was an English pirate who sailed around the West Indies and the Eastern coast of Britain's North American colonies. His nickname describe his thick, black beard and fearsome appearance.

Anne Bonny (1697-1782 approx.)

Anne Bonny was an Irish pirate sailing in the Caribbean, and one of the most famous female pirates of all time. She often disguised herself as a man and became one of the most recognisable and wanted faces of the 'Golden Age of Piracy'

William Kidd (1645 – 1701)

William Kidd was a wealthy and well respected man before he became a pirate. He was unlucky as he was forced to become a pirate and was eventually killed when he was caught. He was known to have buried treasure on Long Island in New York.

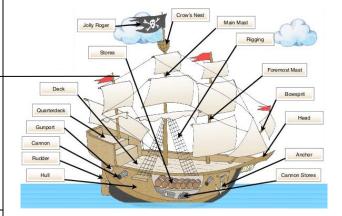

Sir Francis Drake (1540 – 1596)

Sir Francis Drake was an Englishman who had many job roles which included sea captain and explorer. He carried out the second circumnavigation of the world in a single expedition from 1577 to 1580.
