Dear Parents

We will be celebrating World Book day as a school on Thursday 7th March.

The theme this year is 'Share a Story' and we are looking at a book called 'The Tin Forest' by Helen Ward. We would ask you, if possible, to send your children to school with their favourite fiction story to share, and dressed as their favourite character from the story.

We do not expect parents to buy expensive costumes and would ask that we all use our imagination, clothes already owned, charity shops, face paint, etc. to create an outfit. If your child is not dressing up, please send them to school in school uniform.

The children will be spending the day engaged in several book-based activities to develop and strengthen a love of reading.

We shall also be running our annual Book Fair that week – Wednesday 6th March, Thursday 7th March and Friday 8th March in the hall after school from 3.30pm.

This is the main source of funding for books for our library and classrooms. 60% of the price of each book sold goes to our school, so we are grateful for your support at this event.

Yours sincerely

Mrs K Takashima
Headteacher
