

Key stage 1

Changes within living memory
Toys- now and then

The History of the Circus

Children will learn how circuses have developed through time and compare circuses from the past to today.

Events Beyond Living Memory-
The Sinking of the Titanic

Children will learn about events leading up to the Titanic sinking, class systems and reasons for why more people didn't survive the disaster.

Children will learn about toys through the decades and how they are similar and different.

Early Civilisations-
Ancient Greece

Children will learn who the Ancient Greeks were, how important religion was and the significance of Ancient Greece today.

Children will learn about Tudor life in Britain, Henry VIII and his six wives and the Black Death.

The Tudors

Lower Key stage 2

Children will explore crime and punishment from the Romans to the 21st century delving into how crimes and punishments have changed over time.

Early Civilisations-
Ancient Egypt

Children will learn what life was like in Ancient Egypt, the importance of the River Nile and how important religion was to the Egyptians.

Upper Key stage 2

Crime and Punishment