Dear Parents

30th November 2018

On Friday 7th December, Key Stage 2 children will be participating in a V.E. day celebration in school to complete our World War 2 topic. The children have shown great interest in the topic and we are particularly impressed with how the children have completed their own research at home to improve their understanding further.

During the morning, children will be performing World War 2 songs such as 'We're Going to hang out the Washing on the Siegfried Line' and 'We'll Meet Again'. There will be dances from the era and a World War 2 quiz to test their knowledge, followed by a tea-party.

We hope the morning will be an enjoyable event for the children by bringing their learning alive and encouraging them to experience in a small way how the nation felt on that day. The children may dress up in red, white and blue clothing if they wish to do so or their own clothes.

As the children will be having food at the tea-party, please make your class teacher aware if your child has any new food allergies.

Thank you for your continued co-operation.

Key Stage 2 Staff
