

British Values in PE

How are British Values promoted through PE at WKPS?

Democracy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sports Leaders are all eligible to apply for the roles of Sports Leaders and Playmakers. They are not judged on sporting ability alone, but on a range of qualities such as leadership and organisational skills. Pupil Voice allows pupils to express opinions in relation to PE at WKPS, through interviews and an online questionnaire.
Rule of Law	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Thinking skills, one of the 3 strands that form the basis of a good PE lesson, are developed and discussed when reflecting on own performance and those of others. Sportsmanship and fair play are seen as being an essential component, when assessing a pupil in their behaviours in PE, not just their physical ability. Play Leaders and Sports Leaders model the rules and expectations of games, when supporting younger pupils.
Individual Liberty	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pupils can make their own choices when selecting extra -curricular clubs. A wide range of clubs before and after school, such as fencing, athletics, team games and dance provide a variety of options. Pupils are involved in charitable work, raising money through Sports Relief, for others in the community, who are less fortunate than they are.
Mutual Respect	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pupils are encouraged to evaluate their own performance and the performance of others. This encouragement begins with our very youngest pupils, in its' simplest form, before developing into a more detailed evaluation, using the vocabulary associated with that particular sport. The older pupils are encouraged to suggest ways in which they can adapt a game or skill in order to make it assessable for all. This enables all to participate.
Tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Diversity and equality in sport is at the forefront of educating pupils to show tolerance to others. Pupils will learn about sporting heroes such as: Marcus Rashford - supports foodbanks and school meals. Promotes racial equality. Show Racism The Red Card. Sarah Storey in disability sport – cycling and swimming medallist Mo Salah – a Muslim footballer, who respects Ramadan, whilst continuing to play matches Josh Cavallo – Australian soccer player – first player in top flight professional soccer, to publicly come out as gay.
