Prior Knowledge		World War 2 took place between 1939 and 1945. It was a battle between two groups of countries: the 'Allies' and the 'Axis'. Before WW2 began, Germany was ruled by a man called Adolf Hitler. He wanted Germany to rule Europe. During the course of the War, German troops advanced through Europe. Millions of Germans were imprisoned or killed because they didn't fit Hitler's image of the 'perfect' German. The USA didn't join the war until 1941, when Japan attacked them at Pearl Harbour. Some countries remained 'neutral' in WWII. Around 64 million people died in WWII. To ensure their safety, many children in Britain were 'evacuated' to the countryside. Once Britain was at war, food became much more difficult to get hold of. 'Rationing' started in 1940, which meant each person could only buy a certain amount of food each week.		Home Learning conversations...
